

Overview

(Columbia, MD) Three Twenty-One Capital Partners (3-21 Capital) and Nemphos Braue LLC have launched a strategic partnership in the cannabis focused M&A market. Nemphos Braue, a corporate law firm providing big firm experience and boutique-level service, has appointed Bill Huber, Esq. to lead the team's legal efforts. Bill is an owner/operator of LMS Wellness Benefit, LLC, a Cannabis corporation and, before joining Nemphos Braue, he served as in-house counsel and director of operations for a large multinational cannabis organization. In this capacity he was responsible for addressing the full spectrum of corporate formation and operational and product development from seed-to-sale.

3-21 Capital, a Columbia, MD based Investment Banking firm founded in 2008, has successfully led over $15 Billion in transactional value for healthy, sell-side, buy-side and special situations. With offices in Maryland, Denver, Oklahoma and Chicago, 3-21 has the experience, reach and expertise to manage every aspect of the M&A transaction. Leading the market efforts for 3-21 are Sterling Crockett and Brandon Miller. Brandon is an experienced Investment Banker and entrepreneur. Sterling has a strong track record of 30+ years of entrepreneurial experience and has held positions as an owner operator, investor and medical innovator in the Cannabis sector. Together, 3-21 Capital and Nemphos Braue present a powerful team where experience in the cannabis marketplace meets expertise in the M&A field, offering a client-focused approach for those looking to buy, sell, raise funds or invest in a market that's poised to expand.
